tion of Former Villa Adherents Under tains; Carranza Note Due Today.

By Associated Press.

EL PASO, June 28.—The cause of apprehension was found along the border today in news of the gathering of strong forces of former Villa sympathizers under notorious chieftains in the vicinity of Juarez, and the close surveillance by the civil and military authorities of former adherents who are now refugees in El Paso.

Mexican refugees, who reached the border today from the mining district of southern Chihuahua brought stories of the organization of "dynamite squads" in General Trevino's army. They said it is planned that should it become apparent in the event of war that the de facto troops could not hold the railroads to destroy them, and the detachments now stationed along the Mexican Central and the Mexico Northwestern will be concentrated at Chihuahua City. Bombs and hand grenades, it was said, were being made by plugging the ends of small pipes after filling them with powder, nails and scrap iron.

CARRANZA PROTESTS.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—A note protesting against the outrages against Mexican citizens alleged to have been committed by an American force 3,000 strong marching from San Geronimo towards Valle, was sent to the State Department today by Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador designate, on instructions from the Carranza foreign office. Vigorous complaint against the alleged arrest and mistreatment of 300 civilians at La Cruz is registered in the note with a request that the officers responsible be punished and steps taken to prevent a recurrence of such an incident.

Apache scouts with the Americans were charged with brutal treatment of the people in their path.

The column referred to is presumed to be part of General Pershing's main force moving northward from the advance base at Nampulpa, in accordance with orders to draw in the line preparatory for a possible general assault by Mexicans.

So far as could be learned the War Department had not been advised of difficulties or of the arrest of any civilians.

There was nothing to indicate today that the government's position has changed. Officials still expected President Wilson to go to Congress tomorrow if Carranza failed to act or replied unfavorably. Anything short of immediate release of the American troops will be unsatisfactory. No suggestion or proposal of negotiations in this regard will be accepted.

MAY GET NOTE TODAY.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City in a brief telegram dated yesterday and received at the State Department today said he expected to be handed today Carranza's reply to the American note demanding the release of soldiers taken prisoners at Cuernavaca.

The message, containing but two sentences, was the first word the department had heard from Mr. Rodgers since he reported the delivery of the note. It was believed the Mexican authorities were investigating the Carranza affair, but gave no indication of what would be the reply to the American demand.

REPORT BANDITS KILLED.

COLUMBUS, June 28.—Army officers are investigating a report that the murderers of William Parker and his wife on their ranch southwest of Hachita were caught early today on this side of the border and killed. A message received by a relative of the Parkers said the bandits, six in number, were wiped out.

Two boys of the Diamond A and C-Bar ranches today sent a courier to Hachita with news that they had located a hot trail and were following it into Mexico. It was feared that fresh complications may arise from the venture of the cowboys as they probably are well into the interior by this time.

Six Mexicans were arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the Parker killing.

Tomorrow.

That the volunteer military company will hold its first drill tomorrow night with over a hundred men present is the belief of Dr. A. R. Kidd, who will drill the recruits. Those interested in the plans are waiting for the response to their efforts showing Thursday evening before taking any definite steps toward organization. On that evening the names will be taken of those willing to serve if called out by the President.

Much interest is being manifested by the younger men and they are expected to turn out in force.

The company will probably become a part of the Military Training Association's regiment, which has headquarters in Pittsburgh. Company will be formed in Sewickley, Beaver Falls, Greensburg, Kittanning and Monaca.

The regiment will be of full war strength, and will be offered the federal government in event of a call for volunteers. Major R. G. Woodside and Colonel J. E. Harbert are recruiting it.

If the Connellsville company enrolls in this organization it will come under the command of regular army officers.

The colonel of the regiment will name the commissioned officers. Every man will enlist as a private and will be promoted on merit. The men will be fully equipped when ready for duty.

SEEK SON HEREAged Pair Learn He Has Gone On With Company.

An aged couple from Brownsville came to Connellsville yesterday about noon, thinking to find their son still quartered at the armory waiting to be called for Mexican service. They had not heard that the guardsman had left for Mount Gretna, some Friday and others Monday. The failure to find the boy here was a shock. They burst into tears on the steps of the brick structure that had been the scene of busy war preparations for the past week or more but now entirely deserted.

Inquiry was made of neighbors, but the residents of Washington avenue could give them no information. According to the sorrowing parents, their son enlisted without their consent. He had left home without much money, the father said, and they had come to bid him farewell and provide him with funds. They gave no name. The only man from Brownsville on the list is George A. Walters, 21, a charger.

GERMANS ATTACK AGAINContinue to Hammer at the French Positions Before Verdun.

PARIS, June 28.—German troops last night delivered another attack on the French positions near Fleury, on the sector of the Verdun front over which violent fighting has been in progress for several days. The assault was checked by the French fire, the war office announced today.

There was spirited fighting near Thiaumont work which the Germans captured several days ago, but no change took place in the situation there.

ROME, via London, June 28.—The Italians have flung back the Austrians a further distance on the Trentino front. The war office today announced the capture of Monte Triamondo, south of Fiume, and Monte Cavallo. These positions lie between Posina and Astico.

LONDON, June 28.—Four vessels were announced at Lloyd's shipping agency as having been lost. They were the Japanese steamship Daiyetsu Maru, the Italian steamer Clara and the Italian ship Aventino, which were sunk by hostile warships and the Dutch steamship Waanstrum which foundered. The crew of the Dutch vessel was landed. The steamship Daiyetsu Maru was sunk by a submarine off Barcelona, according to a dispatch from Madrid. Forty-one members of her crew were picked up. The Italian steamship Clara was of 3,334 tons net.

While All Available Clerks are En-

By Associated Press.

MOUNT GRETTA, Pa., June 28.—United States army surgeons worked under the rays of lanterns throughout the night in an effort to complete the medical examination of First Brigade of the Pennsylvania National Guard, which last night was ordered by Major General Leonard Wood, commander of the Department of the East, to entrain for El Paso at the earliest possible moment. Clerks were also on duty all night making up the descriptive matter required on the muster papers and it was expected that the troops would be ready to move before daylight.

Officers of the men of the Second Brigade were anxiously awaiting the order that would take them to El Paso, their reported destination on the border. Some time ago General Logan and members of his staff, anticipating a call for duty, went to El Paso and under the direction of United States Army officers, carefully studied the country with a view to possible activities there.

Major General G. M. Clement, commanding the Pennsylvania division of the national guard, today forwarded a protest to the headquarters of the Department of the East at New York against an arrangement to place three men in two car seats. It was understood in camp here that because of the long journey to Texas each soldier would be allowed an entire car seat for sleeping purposes.

TAKE DICK LAW OATH.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 28.—Refusal of some of the men of the Second Infantry to take the oath prescribed by the War Department will not equalize them for service, it became known here today. General Bond discovered that so many soldiers objected to entering the federal service because the oath provided a straight three-year enlistment and a reserve service of three years, and took the matter up with Washington. He received word this morning that those who desired could be sworn under the Dick law, which means they may serve only to the expiration of the present enlistment.

General Harrison having announced that as soon as the medical examination was complete and it was known the number of men had been accepted, orders would be given to entrain.

Excellent time was made by the surgeons and as soon as they were accepted the men were sworn into the federal army.

WESTERN MILITIA MOVES.

CHICAGO, June 28.—Orders were issued today by Major General Thomas H. Barry, in command of the Central Department of the United States army, for the immediate movement to the border of all units of the Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Wisconsin national guards which are "reasonably ready."

NO REST FOR GUARDSMEN.

SAN ANTONIO, June 28.—Billeted feet and sunburned noses will be prevalent among the national guardsmen within two days after they reach the border. The hardening processes will begin all ending until they are fit to duplicate the marches made by General Pershing's men on the trail of Francisco Villa.

Unless circumstances make it impossible some part of each command will go on a hike each day. These marches will be made under conditions such as prevail in active campaigning. The guardsmen probably will start with a march of five miles carrying full kits and the regulation amount of ammunition. The distance will be increased as the men improve in condition until they are able to cover 30 miles a day.

WESTERN MARYLAND LETS CONTRACT FOR BUILDING OF ITS RAILROAD YARDS

Chief Engineer H. R. Pratt of the Western Maryland came to Connellsville today for the purpose of awarding the contract for the construction of the new yards at Fayette. The contract was awarded to A. C. Anderson & Brothers of Altoona, the lowest bidder.

The firm is to start work immediately upon the job. Their equipment is ready to be moved here and it is expected that within the next week a start will have been made. No statement was made as to when the work must be completed.

The contractors will first erect a camp along the Dunbar creek valley for the hundreds of laborers who will be engaged for the next several months in grading and putting down the railroad yards. The yards are to be completed by the time the Western Maryland begins moving trains over the Sheepskin.

MAKE FOURTH OF JULY SAFE,
SAYS STATE FIRE MARSHAL*Urges That Fireworks Be Set Off Carefully and Precautions Taken to Prevent Fires.

"Alack a safe and sane" is the admonition of acting state fire marshal Charles D. Wolf in regarding to the approaching Fourth of July celebration. A bulletin recently issued by the state makes specific suggestions for preventing injuries and fires from the careless use of fireworks on that day.

"Don't under any circumstances," says the bulletin, "permit children to have matches to set off fireworks."

"Householders should be prepared for emergencies," reads another paragraph. "Keep buckets filled with water and place them handy for immediate use, or better still, provide fire extinguishers for not only this occasion but for other occasions that may arise."

The state is doing its best to turn sentiment toward the elimination of fireworks in Independence Day celebration. This is impossible, except in very courageous communities which forbid their use absolutely, but the feeling that it is better to be safe than sorry is spreading year by year, especially in communities where bad accidents have resulted from careless setting off of explosives.

An organized celebration with a fireworks display in charge of experts, is suggested as one method of getting away from the individual use of pyrotechnics.

Anti-venom serum will be distributed free by the State Health Department again this year to protect those injured on the Fourth. Physicians may secure doses containing 1,500 units if they certify that it is for the use of persons unable to pay for the treatment. Springer's drug store at Uniontown is the distributing center.

SCOTSDALE, June 28.—A temporary injunction was issued this afternoon on behalf of Mrs. Catherine C. K. Driscoll against the Wallace Furniture Company. Katherine M. Wallace and Augustus H. Wallace, restraining them from interfering with the collection of Mrs. Driscoll's accounts due on losses of the company. The Connellsville newspapers are also restrained from publication of notices warning persons from making payments to Mrs. Driscoll. The case will be heard on Monday.

PASSENGER CARS SCARCETrain Movement to Border Affects
P. R. R. Service.

PHILADELPHIA, June 28.—Because of a scarcity of passenger cars due to the transportation of large numbers of troops to the Mexican border, the Pennsylvania railroad company announced today that it will probably have to reduce temporarily the size of certain of its regular trains and possibly to annul some trains for a short time.

Hundreds of passenger cars carrying troops, the company in a statement said, will be sent as far as 2,000 miles off its lines, and it will be some time before they can be brought back again into its service.

WILCOX IS NAMEDNew Yorker Will Handle the Hughes

Everson Gives 17 to National Guard.

The sad news that one of the coke region's soldiers had met death before he got to the border where he expected to serve his country against the Mexicans, came to Scottdale yesterday. Daniel Guphill, 21, a recruit with Company E of Mount Pleasant, who lived with his grandfather, Daniel Kuntz at Everson, died in the Huntingdon hospital from injuries suffered when pulled from the troop train at Petersburg on Saturday morning.

Young Guphill was sitting on the edge of the trolley on the vestibule of a coach as the train went through Petersburg, a station on the Pennsylvania between Tyrone and Huntingdon. He was pulled off when his legs caught on a fence and thrown forcibly to the ground, though clear of the train. He suffered concussion of the brain and other severe injuries which resulted in his death in Huntingdon yesterday. Undertaker Ferguson left this morning for Huntingdon to bring back the body.

George Tully of Everson, who suffered an injured leg at the same time Guphill was fatally injured, was treated by a railroad surgeon and later released. Company E at Mount Gretna, Tully is the son of William Tully, policeman at the American Sheet & Tin Plate mill at Scottdale.

Young Guphill just attained his majority last January. He was a painter by trade and made his home, along with his mother, with his grandfather, Daniel Kuntz, a well known World War veteran. The ill-fated recruit was a member of the Sons of Veterans and he will be laid to rest with full military honors. His relatives are prostrated over the sad news. He had only enlisted Sunday when the call for more recruits was made.

Everson has been very patriotic in the Mexican crisis and very generous with her sons. In all she has given 17 young men to Uncle Sam. This is considered remarkably good considering the size of the town and the fact that there is no company of the national guard nearer than Mount Pleasant.

It is thought that Everson furnished the bulk of the Tenth Regiment in William Schaeffer who is barely 17. In order to get in he gave his age as 18, in his eagerness to go, and was accepted by the recruiting officers.

POSTMASTERS ELECTNew Officers Chosen for Western Pennsylvania Association.

At a meeting of the Western Pennsylvania Postmasters' Association at Washington, Pa., yesterday, the following officers were chosen: Richard McGee, Jeannette, president; Arthur McKean, Beaver Falls; Joseph H. Martin, Washington, and Harry W. Fee, Indiana, vice presidents; treasurer, W. A. Keel, Homestead. The secretary will be appointed by the president. About 55 postmasters were present.

The old officers retire to take the same offices in the State Postmasters' Association. Postmaster W. D. McGinnis of Connellsville thus heads the state organization and he has named F. E. Obley of West Newton secretary. W. G. McNeil, Pittsburgh; James Kingsburg, Pottsville, and E. M. Hirsch, Tanawagon, are vice presidents.

The completion of the Wills road and Angle street paving, probably within the present week, and the early finishing up of Washington avenue, will add at least a mile to Connellsville's already large paved mileage.

Wills road is being rushed through to completion by Austin & Matthews, the contractors. About 100 feet, just back of the residence of Mrs. J. B. Hogg, and a small stretch at the extreme end of the street, are all that now remain unpaved. The base is all down and with good weather the slag and sand cushions can be put down and the bricks laid in a few days. The sand filler is distributed along the

PROTEST IS FILED AGAINST BIG GAS TANK UNDER WALK*Residents in Neighborhood of Brimstone Corner Do Not Want Gasoline Kept in Vicinity.

Complaint has been made to the city officials by residents on South Pittsburgh street that a gasoline tank which is to be placed under the sidewalk in front of the Bishop-Sullivan garage will constitute a menace to the safety of that neighborhood. Mr. Donadio, proprietor of the McKinley apartments, took the initiative in the matter, but discovered that the city has no ordinance prohibiting the placing of such a tank. He contemplated taking out an injunction, but the legal expense connected with this is considerable and rather than pay it himself, he says he will vacate the premises.

The tank, the complainant says, will contain 250 gallons of gasoline, enough to blow up that section of the city, if it ever explodes.

"It constitutes such a menace," said one, "that the people of the town should not wait a minute before getting together to pass an ordinance prohibiting it. They don't allow dynamite or powder to be placed under the sidewalks and gasoline is even more dangerous."

STOCKMAN A SUICIDEDespondent Over Loss of Cattle, He Kills Himself.

Ill health resulting from despondency over the loss of his cattle, caused Delbert T. Leichter, a prominent stockman of Friendsville, to commit suicide Monday in the yard of his home. Early in the spring Mr. Leichter's cows and calves were poisoned and worry over their loss impaired his health. Monday after eating his breakfast he went to feed his horses and soon afterwards was found dead by one of his children. The body was brought to Connellsville yesterday afternoon and was removed by Funeral Director Charles C. Mitchell to the home of Mr. Leichter's son-in-law, A. P. Barthen in South Connellsville. Services were fixed for this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Conley, pastor of the South Connellsville Evangelical Church, will officiate.

Mr. Leichter was born and reared at Normalville and is well known in and about Connellsville. He resided on a farm at Bellevue, near town, and after his property was destroyed by fire, with his family he moved to a farm in Friendsville. He married Miss Alvina Peters of Connellsville, who with the following children, Mrs. A. P. Barthen of South Connellsville, Nellie, Leona, Beanie, Cecelia, Paul and Clyde Leichter, all at home, survive.

His mother, Mrs. Susan Leichter of Owensdale, three brothers, Joseph Leichter of Owensdale, Jacob Leichter of East Connellsville and James Leichter of Crutcher, and two sisters, Mrs. David Pritts and Mrs. George Coleman, both of Illinois, survive. He was a brother of the late Rev. John Leichter who one time was pastor of the United Brethren Church at Scottdale.

UNUSUAL SUIT FILEDConnellsville Man Asks Damages from Manganese Company.

SCOTSDALE, June 28.—William Smith of Connellsville, asks $5,000 damages from the American Manganese Manufacturing Company, of Dunbar, in an unusual suit filed today by Attorney John Duggan, Jr. It is alleged that on last May 2 Smith was employed in the construction of a building for the American Manganese Manufacturing Company. Near the new building, imbedded in the ground, was a pipe "filled with dangerous and noxious gases."

It is alleged that at a point in the pipe where the building was being constructed, a plug or stopper had been placed on the pipe. The plug became defective, it is said, and Smith inhaled the fumes, became sick and unable to work. Negligence on the part of the American Manganese Manufacturing Company in not keeping the plug in proper condition is alleged by Smith.

Proposed Business Men's

a Get-Together Picnic in the Woods Nearby; Co-operation of the Business Men's Association is Sought.

The Connellsville Automobile Club at a meeting tonight will lay plans for a home "Mothers' Day" picnic in which it is hoped the Business & Professional Men's Association will co-operate instead of holding holding out-of-town outing such as that of last year.

Opposition to the plan to hold another outing at Olympia Park this year has developed and the autoists will take the lead in arranging for a picnic which will take its place. The out of town picnic is already being promoted by a few of the merchants.

"There is no reason for taking all that money out of the city," said one member of the automobile club. "We can have just as good picnic right here at home and spend the money it costs with local dealers."

The autoists have in mind a "Mothers' Day" picnic which they believe would be a success. If their plans are carried out, the names of all mothers who constitute the "stay at home" when there is a big picnic would be secured and arrangements made to take them all for an auto ride over the roads of the surrounding country before putting them down at the picnic grounds. After a day in the woods, they would be taken back to their homes in machines. It would be decidedly pleasant for the old folks, whose opportunities to get out for a drive on the country roads may be few and far between.

It is expected that the merchants will co-operate with the Auto Club in planning this outing. If the Business & Professional Men's Association wants to take the initiative, the autoists will be content to go along and lead all the assistance they can.

The merchants' picnic last year was in no sense the success that it was expected to be and the small balance turned into the coffers of the association hardly compensated for the effort put forth.

BAR YOUTHFUL DRIVERSNone Under 16 to be Allowed to Drive an Automobile.

Mayor Marietta this morning announced that he would have all automobile drivers under 16 years of age arrested and prosecuted. Chief Rotter was given orders to this effect. "There are a number of children driving cars around town who, as the mayor says, 'can hardly see the wheel.'" This practice will not be tolerated any longer.

Automobiles driving for money and using their cars for purposes of hire must pay the license prescribed by law. Many do not have the proper license. These drivers will be arrested and prosecuted.

The mayor also issued a warning that all merchants and shop keepers who have not paid their license to the city had better do so immediately. This was due on January 1, yet some have not yet paid.

A two days' session of the 350 officials of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad system was held last week at Baltimore and Deer Park, Md. The officials first pledged Woodrow Wilson the loyal support of the 70,000 employees of the railroad in the Mexican trouble.

A. W. Thompson, vice president, spoke of the improvements made during President Willard's term in office. Mr. Thompson said that there has been an expenditure of $50,000,000 for new equipment in that period.

W. H. Mann gave an interesting talk on conditions in Europe and their effect on the railroad. J. T. Underhill spoke on "Safety First."

On the second day of the session President Daniel Willard addressed his co-workers and Vice President George M. Shriver acted as chairman of the meeting.

The Baltimore & Ohio League will close with "Thursday's game." It was originally intended that the schedule should extend through July. The offer of a cup to the champion team of the system, however, made necessary a number of post-season games between the leading teams of the various divisions, and these games must begin in July.

The cup was donated by A. W. Thompson, a vice president of the company. It will be exhibited in the cities represented in the various leagues, starting at New York on July 1. It will come to Conneltsville late in the season being then on its way from New York to Chicago. It will be on display three days in each city.

The Shops team will most probably represent the Conneltsville division in the fight for the cup. The champion teams of each division will be eliminated one by one, until the last two clubs will play for the title at the league park in Washington.

Employees of the eastern lines of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad are arranging the program of their thirty-fifth annual reunion and picnic at Harper's Ferry, July 27. Miss Jennie Smith, the railroad evangelist, Rev. A. L. Boda and others will speak. A. W. Thompson is expected to attend. A special train will be run from Cumberland.

Grain shipments are heavy at present. The traffic between Baltimore and this place consists almost entirely of grain at the present time.

The embargo against coal at Port Liberty has been lifted. While the Central Railroad of New Jersey handles the coal at that end of the line, it comes from the Conneltsville division.

Like a Boy at 50 Bubbling Over With Vitality—Taking Iron Did It

Doctor Say Nuxated Iron is Greatest of All Strength Builders; Often Increases the Strength of Delicate, Nervous Persons 200 Per Cent in Two Weeks Time.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Not long ago a man came to the office who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with blood pressure of a boy of 20 and with vitality as young as a young man; in fact a young man he really was notwithstanding his age. The secret he said was taking iron—nuxated iron had filled him with renewed life. At 30 he was in bad health; at 40 careworn and nearly all in. Now at 50 a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth. As I have said a hundred times over, iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only throw away patent medicines and take simple nuxated iron, I am convinced that the lives of thousands of persons might be saved, who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, consumption, kidney, liver and heart trouble, etc. The real and true cause which started their diseases was nothing more nor less than a weakened condition brought on by lack of iron in the blood. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking just like a plant trying to grow in soil deficient in iron. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from 10 to 14 days time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had been unable to obtain any benefit. But don't take the old-fashioned iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron. If you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove a downright nuisance. The day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the fray, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.—E. Sauer, M. D.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. Sauer is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the older iron salts, it is easily absorbed and assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100,000 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in 10 days' time. It is dispensed in this city by A. A. Clarke and all other druggists.—Adv.

Policeman Turner is enforcing the observance of a curfew law, that requires all children under 16 years of age to be off the streets at 9 o'clock P. M.

The law is as old as the hills, though but has been virtually a dead letter until Turner came on the police force this spring.

Now the Time for Men's

Serge Suits

And This Is the Store

We have made a particular study of serge. The study begins in the choosing of the lightest weight and most open-weave serge that can be trusted to hold its shape, color and good looks.

We can say that we have a plentiful selection of the serge suits in which men will be about as cool as it is possible for well-dressed men to be.

We have plenty of suits in all other cool summer fabrics as well—mohairs, flannels, silk, linen and Palm Beach cloths in models as conservative and as novel as you please. These are $7.50 to $12.50. The cool serges are priced $10 to $25.

Shirts for the Man Who Likes the Starched Cuffs

Many men do—never wear any other kind. This is a particularly good quality of a shirt of this kind at $1.50. Made of Madras of good quality, some printed, others woven and others again are of all-white madras. Exceptionally desirable at the price.

Now's the Time for Hosiery and Underwear

The hot weather will bring people by hundreds to get the comfortable light-weight things provided for summer.

We are prepared.

Men's Underwear of porous and plaid muslin materials at 50c. up. B. V. D., Munsing's and other reliable kinds, $1.00 to $2.50 a suit.

Men's Hosiery, silk and lisle, all colors, fancy stripes, 25c to 50c.

Bags and Suit Cases very reasonable.

SUGGESTIONS TO SICK WOMEN

How Many Are Restored To Health.

First.—Almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful periods, displacements, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

Second.—The medicine most successful in relieving female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates and strengthens the organism; it overcomes disease.

For forty years it has been making women strong and well, relieving backache, nervousness, ulceration and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularity and periodic pains. It has also proved invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Third.—The great number of unsolicited testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission, are proof of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, in the treatment of female ills.

Fourth.—Every ailing woman in the United States is cordially invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.

SCOTSDALE SCHOOL BOARD HOLDS ITS MONTHLY MEETING

Contract for New Toilet System
Is Let to C. A.
Brillhart.

PLANNING FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Large Crowd Attends the Commencement Exercises of Peterson Business College. W. C. T. U. Decides to Hold Another Silver Medal Contest.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTSDALE, June 28.—The School Board held its regular monthly meeting at the school building on Monday evening with J. M. Zimmerman, J. R. Campbell, Homer Kuff, J. L. Reynolds and Dr. O. L. Hess present. Tax Collector McMillan closed up his accounts for the year and paid the balance due on the school tax. The contract for the installing of a new toilet system was let to C. A. Brillhart of this place. The toilet system will be put in the grade schools and must be completed by the opening of the term of schools. Another room was given in the high school for grade work and the library will remain in the high school building for at least another year.

MUSICAL CLUB MEETS.
The Students' Musical Society Club under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Stone were entertained on Saturday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. J. A. Stauffer. The study was the "Life of Jenny Lind," and Beethoven. On the program was a piano solo by Mabel Crete Reynolds; piano duet by Mrs. C. E. Stone and Gretchen Huttlinger; vocal duet, Ruth Morrow and Catherine Stoner; violin solo, Claudia Stoner; piano solo, Virginia Clinkerman; vocal solo, Eva Stauffer; piano solo, Edna Stauffer; piano solo, Miss Stutman. Refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour was spent. The club then adjourned their meetings until September when they will give a cantata that they are working on.

CHAUTAUQUA PLANS.
The Chautauqua committee held a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. on Monday evening and E. H. Dalton was made chairman of the ticket committee. C. Lee Mellinger of advertising and W. J. Barkoll of grounds. Another meeting will be held early in July.

PETERSON COMMENCEMENT.
There was a large crowd in attendance at the commencement exercises held at Peterson's Business College last evening. The room was beautifully decorated in the Peterson colors and daisies. Rev. S. T. Waughman gave the invocation and a quartet composed of Barbara Welly, soprano, Elizabeth Martin, contralto, Homer Dunn, tenor, and Wilbert McGilly, bass. They were accompanied by Miss Janet Martin. J. H. Noy gave an address on "Success That Wins."

W. C. T. U. ENTERTAINS.
Mrs. M. B. Porter of Market street entertained the ladies of the W. C. T. U. last evening. Mrs. W. W. Elcher presided at the business session. They decided to hold another silver medal contest in the fall about the time school opens. The program was arranged by Mrs. George Gordon and Mrs. T. W. Burgess. The following program was carried out: Piano solo, Lucille Porter; reading, "What Is Ready Patriotism?" by Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. James Pool; solo, Elizabeth Williams; reading, "The American Flag," Mrs. George Freeman; choosing the stripes for the flag, Mrs. M. B. Porter. Mrs. A. D. Schaeffer gave a talk on Prohibition work. Solo, Elizabeth Williams.

NOTES.
Miss Maude Snyder has returned to her home at East Liberty after spending the week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin M. Stantz. Attorney Z. T. Sylvie and son, Richard, of Greensburg, were also visitors at the Stantz home on Sunday. Mr. Stantz is slowly recovering from a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism from which he has been suffering for ten weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Altman of Mulberry street are the parents of a son.

THIN FOLKS WHO WOULD BE FAT

Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More.

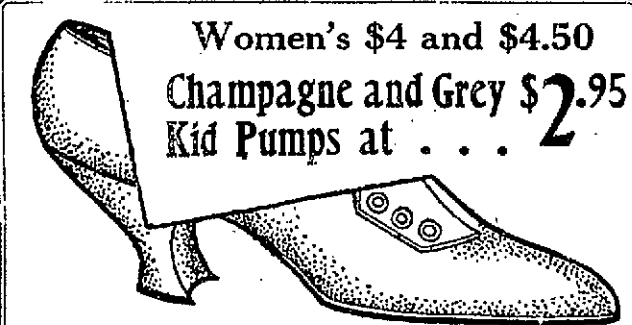

"I'd certainly give most anything to be able to eat a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such a result is not impossible despite past failures. Most thin people are victims of malnutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as they are, when the powers of nutrition are normal. Instead of getting into the blood, much of the fat and flesh producing elements stay in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste.

To correct this condition and to produce a healthy, normal amount of fat, the nutritive process must be artificially supplied with the power which nature has denied them. This can probably best be accomplished by eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is a careful combination of six splendid assimilative agents. Taken with meals they mix with the food to turn the sugars and starches of what you have eaten into rich, ripe nourishment for the tissues and blood and its rapid effect has been in many cases reported remarkable. Reported gains of from 10 to 25 pounds in a single month are by no means infrequent. Yet its action is perfectly natural and absolutely harmless. Sargol is sold by all druggists everywhere and every package contains a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

NOTE—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.—Adv.

FASHIONS

There are fashions in medicine as well as in millinery. The old time cathartic pills with their harsh drastic effects have gone out, and it is high time they had. In their place we have the mild laxatives and gentle cathartics of which Chamberlain's Tablets is one of the most popular. When the proper dose is taken the effect of these tablets is so agreeable and so natural that you do not realize that it has been produced by a medicine. Chamberlain's Tablets also strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Facts Versus Fallacies

FACT is a real state of things. FALLACY is an apparently genuine but really illogical statement or argument.

IT MAY be hard for the average person to realize that Alabama is a Prohibition State in view of the remarkable clipping photographically reproduced to the right.

COMMENT on this is almost superfluous. A man living in Prohibition Alabama is legally permitted to receive two quarts of whiskey every two weeks—a far greater amount than is consumed by the average man in a "wet" State. And in a "wet" State, the City, the County and the State all receive a certain amount of money from the taxes imposed on the liquor industry—in many cases a very considerable amount.

YET here is presented the ridiculous spectacle of Alabama posing as a Prohibition State, not only, according to the dispatch on the right, legally permitting each of her citizens to consume two quarts of whiskey every two weeks (or else four quarts of wine or forty-eight pints of beer), but also foolishly losing the revenues that would accrue from taxes on liquor sold within her State confines.

NO only is the FALLACY that Prohibition prohibits seldom shown more forcibly than in the case of Alabama, but the FACT is made more pertinent that all that Prohibition ever does, has done, or will do is to prevent the legalized and regulated sale of liquor—and to put a premium on subterfuge!

AND the crowning sarcasm of it all is that Alabama believes herself a Prohibition State!

Heavy Shipments of "Wet" Goods
Made to Alabama

DECATUR, Ala., Dec. 28.—The Southern Express Company has done a land office business in the shipment of whiskey and other Christmas liquors (city) Decatur and surrounding towns. The shipment of liquors this year was heavier than it has ever been before in the history of Decatur.

Under the new prohibition laws, allowing every person two quarts of whiskey every two weeks, besides a certain amount of beer and wine, it seems that every one in this section or the State, including his cousin and mother-in-law, are taking advantage of this phase of the new State prohibition laws. And the bad part of it is that neither city, county or State are getting any money out of it, and the money for the wet goods is all leaving this community, never to return again.

Fortunes have been made in buying suburban building lots; Sherwood Place is the place to buy a home-site.

Come to this sale; come early; bring your family; everybody is cordially invited and earnestly expected; ladies are especially welcome. Free street car tickets have been distributed, but if you did not receive one you may obtain as many as you need at the office of F. T. Evans, 136 South Pittsburg street, Connellsville.

Lots Must be Sold to Settle Estate

In order to settle the estate of Mary D. Newmyer, deceased, this sale was ordered by the executrix. All the lots in Sherwood Place will be sold to the highest bidders regardless of price. This is an unusual opportunity to get a home-site at your own price and on such easy terms. Sherwood Place would have been sold out in lots and covered with houses years ago had it been opened to the public. Never before have the people of Connellsville had such an opportunity as this. And never before have Connellsville's prospects for rapid development been better. Friday and Saturday, June 30th and July 1st, are indeed the days when Opportunity knocks. Will you open the door?

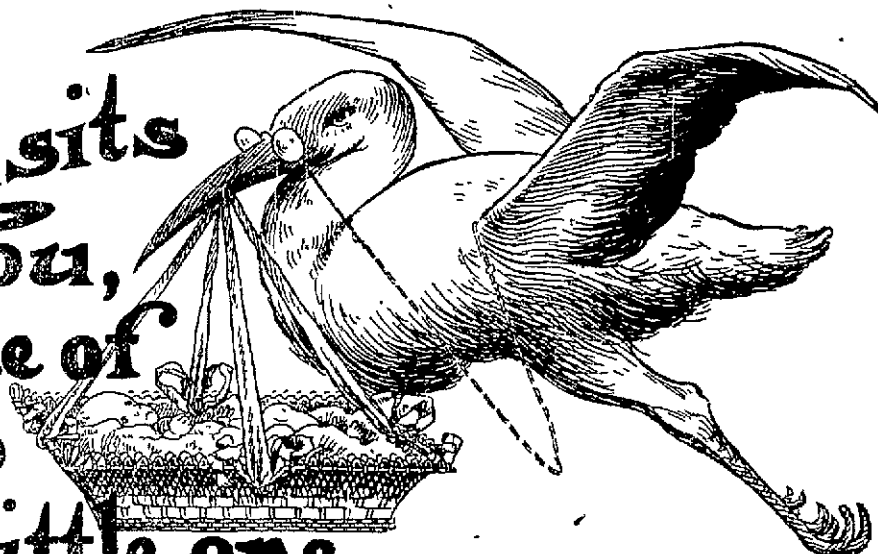

Investments in these beautiful lots mean handsome profits to the buyers. They are certain to increase rapidly in value and will multiply the dollars for those who are shrewd enough to invest at the auction sale. This is the time when the buyers fix the prices. After the auction the owner determines the prices and they will be raised considerably.

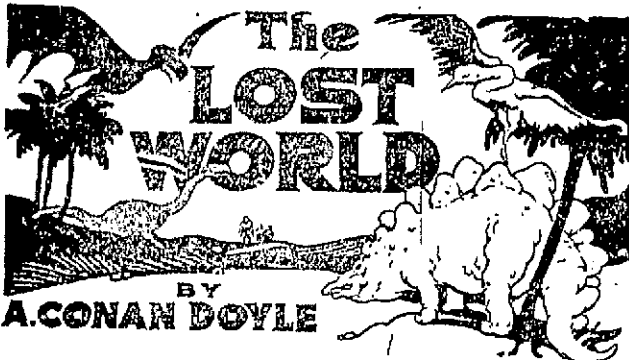

Buy a Plot and Build a Home with the Money you have been paying for Rent. Be your own landlord. Consult your wife and next year you'll be living in your own home. She has the "home" question at heart and her judgment is good.

Copyright, 1912, by A. Conan Doyle.

I was so shocked at the sudden and strange appearance of this ape man that I hesitated whether I should not climb down again and tell my experience to my companions. But I was already so far up the great tree that it seemed a humiliation to return without having carried out my mission. I did not mean to quit.

After a long pause, therefore, to recover my breath and my courage I continued my ascent until I had topped all the trees of the forest.

The air was just above the western sky line, and the evening was a particularly bright and clear one, so that the whole extent of the plateau was visible beneath me. It was, as seen from this height, of an oval contour, with a breadth of about thirty miles and a width of twenty. Its general shape was that of a shallow funnel, all the sides sloping down to a considerable lake in the center. This lake may have been ten miles in circumference and lay very green and beautiful in the evening light, with a thick fringe of reeds at its edges and with its surface broken by several yellow sandbanks, which gleamed golden in the mellow sunlight. A number of long, dark objects, which were too large for alligators and too long for crocodiles, lay upon the edges of these patches of sand. With my glass I could clearly see that they were all crocodiles.

From the side of the plateau on which we were, slopes of sand, with occasional clumps of vegetation, sloped down for five or six miles to the central lake. I could see at my very feet the glides of the iguanodons, and farther off was a round opening in the trees which marked the swamp of the phorid.

I Could See at My Very Feet the Glides of the Iguanodons.

On the side facing me, however, the plateau presented a very different aspect. There the bluish cliffs of the outside were reproduced upon the inside, forming an escarpment about 200 feet high, with a woody slope beneath it.

Along the base of these red cliffs, some distance above the ground, I could see a number of dark lines through the glass, which I conjectured to be the mouths of caves. At the opening of one of these something white was shimmering, but I was unable to make out what it was. I saw, however, that the country upon the sun had set and it was so dark that I could no longer distinguish details. Then I climbed down to my companions waiting for me so eagerly at the bottom of the great tree. For once I was the hero of the expedition. Alas! I had thought of it, and alone I had done it, and here was the chief who would save us a month's blind groping among unknown dangers. Each of them shook me solemnly by the hand.

But before they discussed the details of my map I had to tell them of my encounter with the ape man among the branches. This I did without omitting any of the details.

"He has been there all the time," said Lord John.

"Because I have never been without that feeling that something malevolent was watching us," I mentioned it to you, Professor Challenger. "Try to refresh your memory."

"Our young friend certainly said something of the kind. He is also the one among us who is endowed with that Celtic temperament which would make him sensitive to such impressions."

"That evening by the light of the fire and of a single candle the first map of the lost world was elaborated. Every detail which I had roughly noted from my watchtower was drawn out in its relative place. Challenger's pencil hovered over the great blank which marked the lake.

"What shall we call it?" he asked at length.

"Why should you not take the chance of perpetuating your own name?" said Summerson, with his usual touch of acidity.

"I trust, sir, that my name will have other and more personal claims upon posterity," said Challenger severely. "Any ignominious name handed down his worthless memory by imposing it upon a mountain or a river. I need no such monument. Let our young friend give it a name."

"Then," said I, blushing, I dare say, as I said it, "let it be named Lake Gladys."

"Don't you think the Central lake would be more descriptive?" remarked Summerson.

"I should prefer Lake Gladys," I declared blithely.

Challenger looked at me sympathetically and shook his great head in much disapproval. "Boys will be boys," said he. "Lake Gladys let it be. Ma-lone shall have his way."

CHAPTER XV.

"It Was Dreadful in the Forest."

I HAVE said—of perhaps I have not said, for my memory plays me false and tricks these days—that I glowed with pride when these such men as my comrades thanked me for having saved or at least greatly helped the situation. As the youngest of the party, not merely in years, but in experience, character, knowledge and all that goes to make a man, I had been overshadowed from the first. And now I was coming into my own. I warmed at the thought. Alas for the pride which goes before a fall! That little glow of self-satisfaction, that little measure of self-confidence, was to lead me on that very night to the most dreadful experience of my life, ending with a shock which turns my heart sick when I think of it.

It came about in this way: I had been badly excited by the adventure of the forest and sleep seemed to be impossible. Summerson was on guard, sitting hunched over our small fire, a quaint, angular figure, his rifle across his knees and his pointed, goatlike beard waving with each weary nod of his head. Lord John lay silent, wrapped in the South American poncho which he wore, while Challenger snored with a roll and rattle which reverberated through the woods. The full moon was shining brightly, and the air was crisp and cold. What a night for a walk! And then suddenly came the thought, "Why not?" Suppose I stole softly away, suppose I made my way down to the central lake, suppose I was back at breakfast with some record of the place. Would I not in that case be thought an even more worthy associate? Then if Summerson carried the day and some means of escape were found we should return to London with first-hand knowledge of the central mystery of the plateau, to which I alone of all men would have penetrated. I thought of Gladys, with her "There are heretics all round us." I seemed to hear her voice as she said it. I thought also of McAndie. What a great column article for the paper! What a foundation for a career! A correspondence in the next great war might be within my reach. I clutched at a gun—my pockets were full of cartridges—and, passing the thorn bushes at the gate of our zaroba, quickly slipped out. My last glance showed me the unconscious Summerson, most futile of sentinels, still nodding away like a queer mechanical toy in front of the smoldering fire. He was fast asleep.

The night had been exceedingly still, but as I advanced I became conscious of a low, rumbling sound, a continuous murmur, somewhere in front of me. This grew louder as I proceeded, until at last it was clearly quite close to me. When I stood still the sound was constant, so that it seemed to come from some stationary cause. It was like a boiling kettle or the bubbling of some great pot. Soon I came upon the source of it, for in the center of a small clearing I found a lake—a pool, rather, for it was not larger than the basin of the fountain square fountain—of some black, pitchlike stuff, the surface of which rose and fell in great bladders of bursting gas. The air above it was shimmering with heat, and the ground round was so hot that I could hardly bear to lay my hand on it. It was clear that the great volcanic outburst which had raised the strange plateau so many years ago had not yet entirely spent its forces. Thickened rocks and mounds of lava I had already seen everywhere peeping out from amid the luxuriant vegetation which draped them, but this asphalt pool in the jungle was the first sign that we had of actual existing activity on the slopes of the ancient crater. I had no time to examine it further, for I had need to hurry if I were to be back in camp in the morning.

It was a fearsome walk and one which will be with me so long as memory holds. In the great moonlight clearings I slunk along among the shadows on the margin. In the jungle I crept forward, stopping with a beating heart whenever I heard, as I often did, the crash of breaking branches as some wild beast went past. Now and then great shadows loomed up for an instant and were gone—great, silent shadows which seemed to strew upon padded feet. How often I stopped with the intention of returning, and yet every time my pride conquered my fear and sent me on again until my object should be attained.

At last (my watch showed that it was 1 in the morning) I saw the gleam of water amid the openings of the jungle, and ten minutes later I was among the reeds upon the borders of the central lake. I was exceedingly dry, so I lay down and took a long draught of its waters, which were fresh and cold. There was a broad pathway with many tracks upon it at the spot which I had found, so that it was clearly one of the drinking places of the animals. Close to the water's edge there was a huge pointed block of lava. Up this I climbed, and, lying on the top of this block, I had an excellent view in every direction.

Lake Gladys—my own lake—lay like a sheet of quicksilver before me, with a reflected moon shining brightly in the center of it. It was shallow, for in many places I saw low sand banks protruding above the water. Everywhere upon the still surface I could see signs of life, sometimes the gleam of a great silver-sided fish in the air, sometimes the arched, slate-colored back of some passing monster. Once upon a yellow sand bank I saw a creature like a huge swan, with a clumsy body and a high, flexible neck, shuffling about upon the margin. Presently it plunged in, and for some time I could see the arched neck and darting head undulating over the water. Then it dived, and I saw it no more.

My attention was soon drawn away from these distant sights and brought back to what was going on at my very feet. Two creatures like large armadillos had come down to the drinking place and were squatting at the edge of the water, their long, flexible tongues, like red ribbons, shooting in and out as they lapped. A huge deer, with branching horns, a magnificent creature, which carried itself like a king, came down with its doe and two fawns and drank beside the armadillos. No such deer exist anywhere else upon earth, for the reason, of course, which I have seen would hardly have reached its shoulders. Presently it gave a warning snort and was off with its family among the reeds, while the armadillos also scuttled for shelter. A newcomer, a most monstrous animal, was coming down the path.

For a moment I wondered where I could have seen that ungainly shape, that arched back with triangular fringes along it, that strange, birdlike head held close to the ground. Then it came back to me. It was the stegosaurus—the very creature which Maple White had preserved in his sketch-book and which had been the first object which arrested the attention of Challenger! There he was, perhaps the very specimen which the American artist had encountered. The ground shook beneath his tremendous weight, and his gulping of water resounded through the still night. For five minutes he was so close to my rock that by stretching out my hand I could have reached the hideous waving humples upon his back. Then he lumbered away and was lost among the bowlders.

Looking at my watch, I saw that it was half past 2 o'clock and high time, therefore, that I started upon my homeward journey. There was no difficulty about the direction in which I should return, for all along I had kept the little brook upon my left, and it opened into the central lake within a stone's throw of the bowlder upon which I had been lying. I set off, therefore, in high spirits, for I felt that I had done good work and was taking back a fine budget of news for my companions.

is made to realize the emptiness of theatrical triumphs and comes back home again. "Betty's Hobbies" is a light comedy-drama with Zoe Hoch. Little Betty feeds an old tramp and later is rescued by him. Is the plot of the story. "Professor Unusquodam's Trip to Moon" is a Powers comedy cartoon. Tomorrow, Pearl White appears in the "Iron Claw," No. 2.

"THE EYE OF GOD."—Lola Weber, who has contributed so cleverly of her talents to Dimebird Photoplays, will be co-star with Tyrone Power in presenting "The Eye of God" at the Solis Theatre today, with Charles Gunn and Ethel Weber featured in an all-star cast. "The Eye of God" is a mystery play with crime as its basic motive—murder, diabolical and scintillating. But there is only fascination in the unfolding story, for there has been nothing repellent embodied in the picture. It's just a gripping story, heavy with the weight of crime, and working up to the impressive moral lesson that the eye of God is all-seeing and all-knowing, ferreting out and following the criminal with conscience, and breaks until confession comes to free the soul of its burden. And throughout the impressive story there is mystery to ensnare the attention of the observer and hold interest tensely to the very end.

GLOBE THEATRE.

"THE OATH OF HATE."—A three part Knickerbocker Star feature presenting Henry King, is featured today. In "The Oath of Hate," Henry King is seen as a brutal ship captain, who is flitted by his fiancée. He returns from a cruise in time to create a disturbance at the wedding of the girl to another man, whereupon he swears personal hate. His sight destroyed by an explosion he marries a poor but loyal slave, hoping that a son will be born to them who will carry out his dream of vengeance. All the characters undergo marked changes in a comparatively brief period; but the infatuation situation is reserved for the hero when he is knocked unconscious and thrown from a ship into the sea. The shock restores his vision and a re-awakening of a kindly nature that was unbalanced by a blow suffered many years previous takes place. Stone returns to his wife and the oath of hate is forgotten. Ethel Fleming and Marguerite Nichols are members of the cast and their acting adds greatly to the success of the picture. Friday Victor Moore, the clever Lasky comedian will be seen in "The Race." He is ably supported by Anita King, the Paramount girl. "The Race" is a thrilling drama founded upon Miss King's recent trans-continental motor trip, which she made absolutely alone from Los Angeles to New York City. Last summer Miss King, who is an enthusiastic motorist, was convinced that she could make the long trans-continental trip in an automobile unattended. She secured permission from Jesse L. Lasky, the head of the company. While crossing the state of Nevada she lost her way. She was without food and to increase her terror was attacked by a wolf. She was able to kill the animal but after the struggle fell exhausted in her car where she was found in an unconscious condition the next morning by three prospectors.

A HISTORIC SWORD

Lakewood Woman Prizes Side Arms Presented to Husband.

Mrs. Julia Bierer of Lakewood has seen four generations go off to war, and is the owner of a sword which may receive a third baptism of fire on the Mexican border.

Mrs. Bierer, ninety years old, is the daughter of Henry Walther, who served in the war of 1812. She married Captain John Bierer of the Eighth Pennsylvania Volunteers, and to him the sword was presented in 1865 for conspicuous bravery in Civil War engagements. When the Spanish War broke out, Mrs. Bierer's son, Major Edward Bierer took the old sword and used it in the campaign of the famous Fighting Tenth. Captain Daniel M. Bierer, another son, also distinguished himself in the Tenth regiment.

And now Edward Bierer, a son of Major Bierer, is mobilized with the West Virginia National Guard, and it he shows himself worthy Mrs. Bierer will present the old sword to him.

The ability of a carnival company to come back after a serious tragedy is amply demonstrated in the Con T. Kennedy shows. Sometime after the shows appeared here two years ago, as a feature attraction for the three-day convention, they were in a frightful railroad wreck at Columbus, Ga. Those who recall Kemp's model city, one of the most interesting of the features two years ago, have commented upon its absence. Mr. and Mrs. Kemp were killed in the wreck and the model city was totally destroyed. William Floto, press representative of the company, has a souvenir of the terrible affair in the shape of two silver dollars, melted together, which were found on Kemp's body.

The carnival this year is up to the usual Kennedy standard. Some of the attractions are particularly classy. Esale Fay, with her trick horse, "Arabia," is one of the headliners. In addition to "Arabia" this tent carries an animal act that is above the ordinary. Among the dancers the Godlewski Troupe of Russian dancers is exceptionally good. Princess Mohawk's wild west show has been doing exceptionally good business.

Julie Keith Dene's poses and other features of the Miracle show have been bringing in brisk business. Especial interest in the midgets has been manifested, as well as the other curiosities, some of which are unusually out of the ordinary.

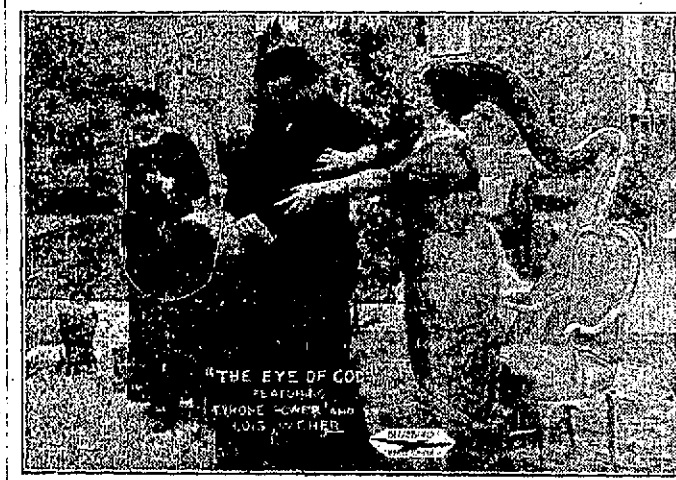

With the motordrome, the monkey auto races, the whip and a collection of other amusements, the Kennedy shows this year are fully as good as during their former attraction. This is the first real carnival that has been here this year.

TWO RECRUITS WHO WERE LEFT BEHIND GO TO MT. GRETN

They Had Leave of Absence, but Company E Got Away From Them.

OTHER MOUNT PLEASANT NEWS

State Armory Placed at Half Killed in Honor of Daniel Gupitt Killed on His Way to Camp Bay View Will Take Swissvale Charge Sunday.

Special to The Courier.

MOUNT PLEASANT, June 28.—Lockard Leventine, aged 21, assistant manager for a five and ten cent store who was here when the call came for recruits and who enlisted Sunday at the armory and asked for leave of absence to tell his parents, who live at Cumberland, of his desire to go with Company E, came back Monday and found that the company had left. Yesterday morning he left to join the boys at Mount Gretna. Without leave, an employee of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, who had taken his parents to the Elmhurst office to his parents, found also that they had come and he had not back here from Pittsburgh and he left yesterday, too.

It is not known how many of the boys did not pass the examination at Mount Gretna as none of them have arrived home.

The flag of the state armory will be put at half mast for Daniel Gupitt who was killed on the way to Mount Gretna.

Rev. L. E. Yahn, pastor of the First Baptist Church here, who resigned and accepted a call to the successful Baptist Church, will take charge of that congregation on next Sunday.

Clifford Cox, a student at Hixson College, who attended a Y. M. C. A. convention at Dallas, Tex., is home for his vacation.

Miss Ruth Gason is at Williamsburg visiting friends.

Dr. James Harkins left last evening to visit the boys at Mount Gretna.

SUFFERED FROM BACKACHE RHEUMATISM, DROPSY.

Dear Mr. Editor—I wish to tell you of a recent experience I had when suffering from backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, and congestion of the kidneys. I tried a new medicine called "Auric," which has recently been discovered by Dr. Pierce, of whose medicines and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., you have doubtless heard for years. This medicine acted upon me in a wonderful manner. I never have taken any medicine so helpful in such quick time. I do wish anyone in need of such a remedy would give it a trial. (Signed) C. H. HARRIS.

Notes: Folks in town and adjoining country are delighted with the results they have obtained by using "Auric," the newest discovery of Dr. Pierce, who is head of the INVALESCENTS' HOME and Surgical Institute, in Buffalo, N. Y. Those who started the day with a backache, stiff legs, arms and limbs, and an aching head, worn out before the day began because they were in and out of bed half a dozen times at night, are appreciating the perfect rest, comfort and new strength they obtained from Dr. Pierce's Auric Tablets. To prove that this is a certain and safe remedy and cures backache, kidney and bladder diseases and rheumatism, if you've never used the "Auric," cut this out and send ten cents to Doctor Pierce for a large sample package. This will prove to you that "Auric" is thirty-seven times more active than Epsom in eliminating uric acid and the most perfect kidney and bladder corrector. If you are a sufferer, go to your best druggist and ask for a box of Dr. Pierce's Auric Tablets. You run no risk for Dr. Pierce's good name stands behind this wonderful new discovery as it has for the past half century for his "Golden Medical Discovery," which makes the blood pure, his "Favorite Prescription" for weak women and "Treatise on Pellets" for liver ills.

Uncle Sam Feeds His Soldiers Well; Militia Get Same Rations as Regulars

COAL STRIKE SITUATION BUT LITTLE CHANGED

The Resumption of the Yeshu Mines Did Not Result in General Break as Had Been Expected.

The resumption last Friday of the mines of the Yeshu Coal Company, subsidiary of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company, it was thought would mark a break in the strike of the miners in the Monongahela valley and other sections of the Pittsburgh district. To date very little progress has been made towards a resumption of the mines where the men are members of the union. A few independent mines of relatively small capacity are working but not to capacity. Others who there is practically no change in the situation compared with that of a week ago.

The insistent element of the miners' union were more concerned in bringing about a removal of their district officers than they are securing a settlement of their grievances. They have held conventions but without accomplishing very definite results.

A scale committee appointed at one of these meetings had a conference at Indianapolis with the international board of the miners' union and was instructed by that body to return to the field and tell the men to return to work at once. At the same time it was decided to send a number of the members of the international board to the district to devise some means of surmounting the strike which has resulted from the repudiation of the scale.

The Pittsburgh Coal Company the largest operator in the district is manifesting little concern over the attitude of the majority of its employees. No attempt is being made to resume operations but the company is increasing activity at its operations in the Kanawha region of West Virginia and is taking care of its trade largely from that source.

The demand for coal is higher than last and the previous week but prices are fairly well maintained. Fake shipments from this district are very light, almost nothing. In some quarters there is talk now of the likelihood of all-rail shipments of coal having to be made to the northwest this winter.

MAY EARNINGS

Of United States Steel Corporation Largest in Its History.

The net earnings of the United States Steel Corporation in May were the largest for any single month in the history of the corporation. This is indicated by shipments of 1,559,000 tons and an estimated net profit of $17 per ton, which points to earnings of $22,000,000, exceeding the previous maximum monthly earnings of $20,000,000, which were made in March of this year—by nearly $2,000,000 and showing a gain of about $850,000 over the estimated net earnings in April.

If earnings during the current month equal those of April, the total net earnings during the second quarter of this year will be a little in excess of $67,000,000 which will establish a new high record in quarterly earnings.

THE YARDS WIN

Shut Out Superintendents in Only B. & O. Contest.

Only one game was played in the Baltimore & Ohio League yesterday. Shops, which were to go to Rockwood, neglected to do so and forfeited the game. Somerset and Freight decided to cancel their game, counting in its stead an exhibition game played earlier in the season. This game resulted in a victory for Somerset by a score of 13-1.

At South Connelville the Yards shut out the Superintendents' office, winning by a score of 5-0. Freight Twisted for the Yards and he had no trouble holding down his opponents. The score:

Just Suppose

—You were shopping in some department of this big store and had decided upon the purchase of some article costing, let us say, $1.00. The salesperson wraps your purchase and says: "Now, Madam, as you know, the price of this article is $1.00, but we will only charge you 95 cents." Would you refuse to accept it for 95 cents? We believe not, and yet this is just what every man or woman is doing who does not save.

Gold Bond Trading Stamps

—They actually pay you 4% in Merchandise or $4.00 in cash on every $100 you spend, and if you choose merchandise it may be selected from any department except groceries. Gold Bond Stamps will also be exchanged for Soap Wrappers, Tobacco Taxes and many other kinds of coupons. You should save them.

A Hundred Uses for Ladies' Sweaters Today

—Motoring, all outdoor sports, porch wear, parties, and so on through a lengthy list that easily explains the brisk demand we are now experiencing for this article of feminine attire. We have them in so many different shades and such effective styles that women instinctively turn to this store first. The new, loose-fitting models are especially popular.

—FIBRE SILK SWEATERS, in blue, corn, green, rose, brown and black, to sell for $5.00, $6.50, $8.50 and $10.

—PURE SILK SWEATERS, every thread silk, in green and rose, to sell for $22.50.

—SHETLAND WOOL SWEATERS, the new loose-fitting styles, in corn, rose, blue and lavender, to sell for $7.50.

An Opportunity Sale of Aluminum Ware at One-Fourth Off

—Opportunity because it permits a saving of one-fourth on preserving kettles, sauce pans and dozens of other articles needed in the kitchen just at this time when the canning season is coming on and there are so many fresh vegetables to be cooked. Extraordinary because it is a legitimate saving coming right in the face of upward-moving market prices on all utensils of this character. You can't afford to turn your back upon this opportunity.

In Selecting Her American Lady Corset

IN SELECTING her American Lady Corset, let the stout woman see to it that she buys her corset in a size large enough, and that she adjusts it to her figure without tightening it too much at the waist. It is a great temptation to the large woman to draw up her corset as much as she can.

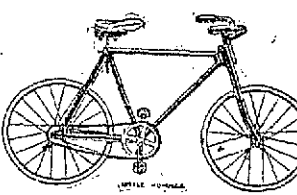

—The flesh, however, may be compressed just so much and no more. After that, it goes up or down, as the case may be, causing ugly lines, a red face, and an extremely awkward walk. The corset may be made quite tight about the hips, but it must be left easy at the waist line and around the top.

If Your Figure Is Stout

—Or regardless of its requirements, there is a particular 'American Lady Corset' model which will supply your needs. The services of a graduate corsetiere are always yours to command. Just ask to see "your" model—it will afford you style, service and satisfaction.
